

GAVRI:

Australian based musician Composer & Producer Robert Chomicz is the World Music artist behind the name GAVRI. Meaning "Celebration of Life", the word GAVRI originates from India. Based in the east coast city of the Gold Coast, Robert is a musician on a journey of fusion, uniting the traditional instruments and exotic voices of the East with the sounds and production techniques of the West. The result is a truly multicultural music, music with a history and also a future. (Album release date: March 1st 2006)

His solo debut album "Global Inspiration" is a musical testament to his experiences in Tanzania, Kenya and India where many of the original voices were recorded. From being questioned by police while capturing street sounds in Mumbai to recording very enthusiastic East African locals in Zanzibar, the GAVRI journey has been a memorable one.

The self produced album melds cutting edge beats and smooth electronica with diverse instrumentation and vocals from around the world, giving it an organic and uplifting sound with a modern groove.

"Music has given me the opportunity of meeting extraordinary people. Each of them has shown me a different perspective, a different angle with which I have been able to broaden my own horizons, leading me a step further into yet another unexplored territory."

Earlier in his career Robert was involved in mixing live sound for bands along with writing and performing original songs. As he developed an affinity for the production aspects of music, he began working on solo projects. "There's nothing more satisfying than being able to create an entire song or soundscape as opposed to only being responsible for a single instrument".

As his studio grew so did the variety of musical projects he was involved with. From composing music for Film & Television projects to working as a Sound Designer and location Sound Recordist, he has never stopped broadening his musical horizon.

ALBUM HIGHLIGHTS:

Global Inspiration comes as an enhanced CD with an interactive visual feature (PC & Mac friendly). This invites the viewer to experience some of the beautiful imagery of the GAVRI journeys through the film clip to "Mysterious Place" (shot in India) and via the image gallery.

"Remember the Day" is the opening track on the album Global Inspiration. As the tablas beat to emotive piano melodies, kantele and santur strings resonate with electronic overtones. A heartfelt collaboration of indigenous sounds and a beautiful impression of cross culture, featuring voices from Senegal.

"This world is not my home, I am just passing through" ... recorded on a midnight train from Brindisi to Naples, a Cameroon girl sings of her "Gloryland", Track 11. Her call is innocent, echoing the mystique of "Global Inspiration".

"Bombastic" Track 10 fires with modern dance rhythms and commanding drums, strings and lively horns. A boy's ascending chants burst into mighty calls of Indian celebration, transporting you to the heart of Mumbai mayhem.

"Iddy's Song" Track 4 (recorded in Tanzania) offers the perfect platform for Tanzanian singer, Iddy Ally. The calls of African children join Iddy's soulful voice, layered with textured guitars & solid bass grooves. A myriad of amazing sounds and delightful interactions, unmistakably GAVRI.

MEDIA:

"The debut album by GAVRI "Global Inspiration" is a seamless blend of unity where voices and traditional instruments transcend geographic borders. Beats & samples pulse alongside ethnic instruments and ethereal voices of the East, in a down-tempo fusion of cutting edge production. A new Australian world music Artist with a fresh and unique sound".
Simon James, -Talent Magazine -

"Shades of Afrocelt Sound System blended with Deep Forest, Global inspiration blends musical styles and influences from around the globe. Gavri has put together an outstanding world music release, with sometimes haunting vocals set to a panoply of world riddims.....
Rankin, HBN Radio, Pennsylvania, USA.
